

had twenty-three votes, and Tobias E. Stansbury had sixteen votes.

For the Union Bank of Maryland, Hugh M. Elderry had sixty-seven votes, Alexander C. Bullitt had thirty-three votes, Charles C. Egerton had twenty-nine votes, John P. Kennedy had twenty-five votes, John H. Morton had ten votes, and William Meeteer had eight votes.

For the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore, Richard Estep had forty-three votes, George Kiston had thirty-eight votes, William Crawford, junior, had thirty-eight votes, Stephen H. Ford had nineteen votes, Robert D. Burns had eighteen votes, and John G. Proud had fifteen votes.

For the Farmers Bank of Maryland, Jeremiah T. Chase had seventy-eight votes, and Theodorick Bland had seventy-six votes.

For the Branch Bank of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, at Easton, Lambert W. Spencer had seventy-nine votes, and William Clark had seventy-eight votes.

For the Elkton Bank, Adam Whann had eighty votes.

And for the Hager's-town Bank, John Van Lear, junior, had eighty votes, and David Schnebly had seventy-nine votes.

Whereupon, it was declared in the house of delegates, that the following persons were duly elected directors on the part of the state, in the respective banks above mentioned, for and during the term prescribed by law, viz.

In the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, William Stewart and Henry B. Griffith.

In the Union Bank of Maryland, Hugh M. Elderry and Alexander C. Bullitt.

In the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore, Richard Estep.

In the Farmers Bank of Maryland, Jeremiah T. Chase and Theodorick Bland.

In the Branch of the Bank last mentioned, at Easton, Lambert W. Spencer and William Clark.

In the Elkton Bank, Adam Whann.

And in the Hager's town Bank, John Van Lear, junior, and David Schnebly.

Petitions and memorials were this day presented, viz.

By Mr. Turner, the memorial of Edward Parrish, of Baltimore county, a poor old soldier of the revolution, praying that his name may be placed on the pension list, referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

And the petition of sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to authorise the erection of a bridge over the Great Falls of Gunpowder, in said